

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

TRENT TYLER TREPANIA,

Plaintiff,

v.

LUCAS SHEPARD, MATHEW JEFSON,
JACOB ANDERSON, NICK ALMOGHRABI,
HAYWARD AREA MEMORIAL HOSPITAL,
AND SAWYER COUNTY,

Defendants.

ORDER

21-cv-250-jdp

Pro se plaintiff Trent Tyler Trepania, a former inmate at Washburn County Jail, alleges that officers used excessive force during his arrest. He also alleges that Hayward Area Memorial Hospital failed to treat his resulting injuries. In a December 22, 2021, order, I concluded that Trepania's complaint did not state any claims for relief that this court can consider. Dkt. 14. Trepania's allegations against the officers were too vague to state a claim, and he did not allege facts that allowed me to infer that Hayward Area Memorial Hospital was a proper defendant for a lawsuit under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I gave Trepania until January 12, 2022, to submit an amended complaint that addressed those problems. I also warned Trepania that if didn't submit an amended complaint by the deadline, I would dismiss the case for his failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. It is now past Trepania's deadline, and he has not filed an amended complaint or otherwise responded to the court's order. I will dismiss this case.

I note that after filing this lawsuit, Trepania provided the court with an updated address, and it appears that Trepania is no longer incarcerated. Nevertheless, because Trepania was a prisoner at the time he filed this lawsuit, I will assess Trepania a “strike” under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) for failure to state a claim.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. This case is DISMISSED for plaintiff Trent Tyler Trepania’s failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.
2. The clerk of court is directed to record a “strike” against plaintiff.
3. The clerk of court is directed to enter judgment in favor of defendants and close the case.

Entered January 20, 2022.
